

Ku-ring-gai Historical Society

Rallying the Troops: A World War I Commemoration, Volume 4

For more information about this publication and to order, click here

Volume 4 Table of Contents

Foreword

Preface

The Final Battles

1. Australians on the Western Front – 1918 Overview
2. The Battles for Villers-Bretonneux (4 – 26 April 1918)
3. Le Hamel: Monash's Orchestrated Battle (4 July 1918)
4. Germany's Black Day at the Battle of Amiens (8 August 1918)
5. Mont St Quentin and Péronne (31 August – 2 September 1918)
6. Australian Corps' Final Battles: the Hindenburg Line (18 September – 5 October 1918)

The Armistice

7. The Armistice on the Western Front
8. The Armistice in the Middle East
9. It's Over ... at Last
10. They're Coming Home

A Soldier's Life

11. From Home to Home: the Daily Life of Service Men and Women
12. Where Living Reigned: Australians on Leave in London
13. When shall I see the Old Country Again?
14. Preparing for Peace: Non Military Employment and Post War Education

Left Behind

15. The Anguish of Mothers and Wives

16. Left Behind: the Animals of War

The Home Front

17. Hunnamurra: the Enemy in our Midst

18. An Even Larger Army: the Local War Effort

They're Home

19. Lady Davidson Hospital

20. Soldier Settlement Schemes

21. War Service Homes

22. Legacy and the Families of the Fallen

Our Ku-ring-gai Volunteers

S surnames

T surnames

U surnames

V surnames

W surnames

Y surnames

Addenda: the War stories of People Missed in Previous Volumes

Appendices

- Australian Military Structure in World War I
- World War I Glossary
- Abbreviations
- Service, Honour and Commemoration
- Honours and Awards
- Those Who gave their Lives: where They are Commemorated or Buried Overseas
- Ku-ring-gai Volunteers appearing in Volumes I, II, III and IV

Index

Acknowledgements